Polonius' Advice a Hoodoo.

A certain Chicago manufacturer has issued a terrible warning to the gay and festive clerks who pass the majority of their spare time in devising ways and means whereby they may the more gorgeously adorn their manly figures.

This manufacturer entered his office the other day just as one of his clerks was coming out. In the clerk's hand was a small cane and on his finger glittered a diamond ring, and his raiment was such as to make Solomon turn in his grave with envy. The employer noted the dazzling creature and then made his way to the cashier's office and inquired what salary the young man was getting.

"Twelve dollars a week," replied the cashier.

"Cut it down to $10, the fellow dresses better than I do," was the terse response.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. With out that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

(ALL DEALERS)Delicacy of Frenchmen.

"Undoubtedly Frenchmen have the most delicate way of expressing themselves," said a New York young woman to a group of friends at tea. "I have just had the oddest little encounter with a man who looked as if he had just arrived here, his clothes were so unmistakably Parisian. I was walking in Broadway when I saw him coming. To my surprise, as he was a stranger to me, he stopped, put his heels together and, taking off his hat, made a low bow. 'Pardon, mademoiselle,' said he, 'your beneath skirt descends.' Making again the same elaborate bow, he passed on. I looked down and saw that my silk petticoat was showing just a little below the outside skirt. Had an American man noticed it, he would have felt embarrassed about mentioning it; or, if he had the courage, he never would have been able to think of such a delicate way of making that bit of a misfit known to me."

A Cup of Tea For the Delity.

A little girl who had been carefully trained to believe in the existence of a Delity and that God was ever present to watch over her, was playing the other day in the nursery. Her mother had left her alone to amuse herself with a new set of "play" dishes, a tea set. Her father is an intensely religious man and had assisted his wife in impressing upon the little girl's mind the idea that God was always with and watching over her.

The little girl was busily engaged in giving a tea party. She had set two dolls at the toy table opposite her and had placed a cup and saucer in front of each of them. There was an extra cup and saucer at a vacant place.

She poured the tea first into the cups before each doll. Then she came to the cup at the vacant place and paused, because there was no guest there. Then she remembered her religious teaching, her face brightened and she said:

"Will you have a cup of tea, God?"

THOUGHT OF HER CARPETS.

Housewifely Instincts Aroused by Visit of Burglar.

A Massachusetts man tells a story illustrating the ruling spirit of a Yankee housewife.

Late one night her husband was awakened by mysterious sounds on the lower floor of their house. Jumping out of bed, the husband took his revolver from a drawer and crept noiselessly to the head of the stairs. Presently the wife herself was awakened by a loud report, followed by a mad scurrying of feet. Much agitated she in turn sprang from bed and went to the door, where she met her husband returning from the scene of the disturbance and wearing a very disappointed expression.

"Richard," she stammered, "was it—was it—"
"Yes, it was a burglar."
"Did he—did he—"
"Yes, he got away."
"Oh, I don't care about that," was the wife's rejoinder. "What I want to know is, did he wipe his feet before he started upstairs?"

MARKET REPORT.

EDITOR GARLAND GLOBE:

Kansas City Stock Yards, Feb. 18, 1907.—The general cattle market recovered somewhat from its bad condition the first of last week by the close, and the situation is steady to strong today, except on medium class fed steers, which are barely steady. The run today is about normal, at 11,000 head, with she stuff and stockers and feeders selling best. Country demand continues strong as the near approach of spring is an important favorable item in figuring on the purchase of stockers, while the sentiment is generally favorable regarding the future fat cattle market, with the usual large number of buyers such a condition of thought generally makes. Heavy feeders are approaching prohibitive figures, bulk of feeders selling at 4.40 to 4.85, a few below 4.25 while stockers bring 3.50 to 4.60. Top corn fed steers here lately sold at 6.25, bulk of steers 4.65 to 5.35, cows 3.00 to 4.75, heifers 3.50 to 5.00, but 3.00 to 4.15, calves 25 to 50 cents lower than a week ago, at 3.75 to 7.25, according to weight, age and flesh.

Mutton receipts are running short of last year at this time, although there is a liberal supply today at 13,000 head. The market on lambs declined 10 to 15 cents last week, yearlings, wethers and ewes holding steady account of scarcity. The general market is 10 lower today, covering all kinds, partly due to the liberal supply, but mainly account of adverse reports from Chicago. Buyers claim the market here has been too high and are attempting to put it on an equality with other points today. Bulk of lambs sold today at 7.25 to 7.30, weighing 68 to 69 lbs., nothing choice or fancy included, some 88 lb. yearlings from the Arkansas Valley today at 6.65, ewes at 4.90 to 5.10, although some fancy ewes sold at 5.25 to 5.40 late last week. Very few wethers have been included, one lot at 5.85 last week and one medium lot today at 5.40. The market is in a good, healthy state, and likely to remain so on the reduced supplies that appear available for the immediate future.

CAUGHT THE BACHELOR UNCLE.

Little Jimmy Proved That He "Had It In Him."

There had never been any special talent for music in the Ransom family until the arrival of Jimmy Ransom. At the age of eight he was considered a musical prodigy, and at ten there was talk of Jimmy's being sent away to study with a view to becoming a professional musician.

It was hoped that Mr. Franklin Ransom, a bachelor uncle with considerable money, would provide a good part of the sum needed for Jimmy's study years. At first the gentleman was apathetic, but after a two days' visit from Jimmy he expressed himself as "won over."

"I tell you," he said to half a dozen eager relatives, "when I saw and heard that little chap out in my old shed trying to play 'Hail, Columbia' on a mess of old tomato cans with an iron spoon, I said to myself: 'He's got it in him, Jimmy has, and I'm ready to lend a hand to fetch it out!'"—Youth's Companion.

How to Remain Young.

To continue young in health and strength, do as Mrs. N. F. Rowan, McDonough, Ga., did. She says: "Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured me of chronic liver and stomach trouble, complicated with such an unhealthy condition of the blood that my skin turned red as flannel. I am now practically 20 years younger than before I took Electric Bitters. I can now do all my work with ease and assist in my husband's store." Guaranteed at Ritter Bros. Drug Store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Not R. Kipling's Mulvaney. Patrick Mulvaney was on the witness stand during the trial of Capt. Hammer and Hubbard before Judge Cabaniss, says the San Francisco Chronicle. Mulvaney objected to going on record as Patrick. He preferred "Pat," as his friends at Fort Bragg did not know him by any other name. Mulvaney, besides being a good witness for the defense, was airy and humorous. As he was leaving the stand, Judge Cabaniss asked him:

"Have you ever been in India, Mr. Mulvaney?"

"No, sir."

"Then you don't know your great compatriot Mulvaney?"

"No, sir."

"Have you ever heard of Rudyard Kipling, Pat?"

"No, sir. I have not. But, yer anner, he don't live in Fort Bragg. I am sure av that," and Mulvaney left the dais with a puzzled look, amid roars of laughter from the assembled crowd.

Saved Her Son's Life.

The happiest mother in the little town of Ava, Mo., is Mrs. S. Ruppee. She writes: "One year ago my son was down with such serious lung trouble that our physician was unable to help him; when by our druggist's advice, I began giving him Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noticed improvement. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks when he was perfectly well. He has worked steadily since at carpenter work. 'Dr. King's New Discovery saved his life.' Guaranteed best cough and cold remedy by Ritter Bros. Drug Co. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free."
